The Parenting Center is offering free classes at Babies"R"Us®

FORT WORTH, Texas – June 12, 2014 – The Parenting Center is partnering with Babies"R"Us® to offer free parenting classes to the community at the Babies"R"Us® Overton Ridge Location (5800 Overton Ridge Blvd, Fort Worth, TX 76132). The Parenting Center experts will provide one class per month to the parents of children aged birth to five years old.

“There is a need for parenting assistance in our community, and we plan to address it. Every parent can use a helping hand from time to time. These particular classes will focus on everything from bottles to blocks to getting ready to potty-train your child. The partnership with Babies"R"Us® just seems like a natural fit with what The Parenting Center provides, and we are excited to see how many families we will reach.” says Suzanne Stevenson, Family Life Education Program Manager at The Parenting Center.
