

The Parenting Center
Internet Privacy Policy

Internet users' privacy is important to The Parenting Center. The agency only gathers personally identifiable information such as name, address, and phone number when the site visitor volunteers the information. Information collected will be used only in the way it was given.

The agency does not sell, share or otherwise knowingly distribute any personal information. Other information collected is only done in aggregate to determine usage of the website.

The Parenting Center uses generally accepted methods for protection of information like firewalls and secure passwords.

If you have questions or wish to review information collected from the website, please contact us at 817-332-6348.
